MARKET ACT APPEALS HEARD IN VANCOUVER

Court of Appeal to Rule on Cases Involving B.C. Produce Statute

Sales of Potatoes in Province
and Apples Outside of B.C.
Are Argued

Vancouver, Nov. 20.—Validity of the British Columbia Produce Marketing Act is involved in four appeals which are being heard by the Court of Appeal here.

The court comprises Chief Justice Macdonald and Justices Martin and M. A. Macdonald.

The first case is an appeal by Chung Chuck, Delta Chinese farmer, from a judgment given in the British Columbia Supreme Court by Mr. Justice
Murphy, who sustained a conviction
by Magistrate Johnson of New Westminster for selling potatoes in the Province without the consent of the Mainland Potato Committee.

This will be followed by the Government's appeal from Mr. Justice W.
Macdonald's judgment in the Wong
Kit case, wherein it was held the Produce Marketing Act was not applicable to shipments outside the Province. As a result, sales of two loads of potatoes by Wong Kit, who is also a Chinese Delta farmer, to a purchaser in Calgary were held not to constitute an infringement of the statute. An affidavit in the Brixton police court by Magistrate Darling
therefore was affirmed by Mr. Justice Macdonald.

APPLE CASES

The remaining cases are appeals by the Associated Growers of B.C. Limited and Sales Service Limited of Kelowna
from judgments of Mr. Justice Gregory affirming convictions by Magistrate E.
Weddell at Kelowna. These cases involve apples, as distinguished from potatoes, and are the first two appeals.
The Associated Growers of Kelowna were found guilty of selling apples at a price less than the fixed price of the Committee of Direction and Sales Service Limited. It was charged in contravention of the act, shipped on consignment,
without any fixed price.

Nominal fines were imposed in all cases, in which convictions were entered.

—H. B. Wood, K.C., and J. P. Hogg are counsel for the Chinese potato growers and L. G. McPhillips, K.C., and A.
de B. McPhillips for the Attorney-General in the Chung Chuck case, and Harold B. Robertson, K.C., for the Attorney-General in the remaining cases.

CHIEF POINTS

One of the principal points to be determined in so far as the Produce Marketing Act is concerned is whether it encroaches on the Federal jurisdiction over trade and commerce, and whether it attempts to legislate on a matter which Parliament in the Criminal Code has declared to be a crime.

Mr. Wood contended the statute dealt with inter-provincial trade and was therefore ultra vires under Section 91 of the British North America Act.

The provincial enactment, according to Mr. Wood, was not affecting property and civil right, but trade and commerce, because the act, in fact,
restrained trade.

The argument is proceeding.

HOOVER MAKES LONG CRUISE

U.S. President-elect Voyaging on Battleship to Central and South America

United States Battleship Maryland,
Nov. 20.—Moving southward to-day
aboard this ship at a speed of fifteen knots, Herbert Hoover, President-elect of the United States, is on his way
plans for his mission of goodwill and understanding to the republics of Latin-America. Mr. Hoover has received invitations from every country of Central and South America to extend his goodwill tour to include them,
but to-day it seemed impossible, he could accept them all, because time would not permit it. There was also another difficulty, in that the Maryland, drawing thirty-five feet and with a heavy load of fuel and supplies,
would not be able to come near some of the ports.

CHOOSING PORTS

Once the Maryland had cleared San Pedro Mr. Hoover went into conference with Henry Fletcher, United States Ambassador to Italy and a student of Latin-American affairs. With his aid, Mr. Hoover hoped to be able to complete his itinerary.

Guatemala and Honduras were under consideration, in addition to Corinto, Nicaragua, where Mr. Hoover will certainly stop.

The battleship will be his headquarters until he journeys across the Andes from Chile.

Christmas will be spent either in Buenos Ayres or Rio Janeiro.

Every honor except that of the Presidential flag was paid Mr. Hoover on his embarkation.

Toronto Scene Of Fur Robbery

Toronto, Nov. 20.—Three armed men held up Victor Goodman and several employees shortly after they had opened his fur store on Spadina Avenue here this morning, forced them into a back office and escaped in an automobile with $25,000 worth of fur.

Building Permits In Canada Break Records

Ottawa, Nov. 20.—The value of the building permits issued in Canada during October last was greater than the total for that month in any year recorded by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics. The October figure of $21,508,672 was an increase of $206,387 over the total of $21,302,285 for September and an increase of $2,669,653, or fourteen per cent, over the aggregate of $18,848,019 during October, 1927.

For the first ten months of 1928 the total was $187,697,420.
That was greater by $28,000,000 than for the corresponding period of 1927, which was the previous high record.

PIRATES KILL FIFTEEN OF JUNK'S CREW

Chinese Vessel in Yangtze Estuary Overpowered After Desperate Fight

Released After Bodies Thrown Overboard and Small Ransom Paid

Shanghai, Nov. 20.—Sailors of the Chinese junk, Chin Chung Tai, reported to-day the vessel had been attacked by pirates in the estuary of the Yangtze River and fifteen members of the crew murdered.

The vessel, which was bound for Shanghai from Dairen, stated sixty pirates overpowered the crew after the sailors had put up a desperate resistance.

The bodies of the fifteen murdered
were thrown overboard.

The vessel was released after payment of a ransom of $1,600 in Mexican money.

OMAHA POLICE HUNT KILLER

Hatchet Maniac Has Murdered Three Persons and Wounded Two

Omaha, Neb., Nov. 20.—A maniac
"hatchet man," who, in brutal fury,
pounced upon his victims as they slept,
was sought by Omaha police to-day for the killing of two women and an aged man, and the wounding of another man and his wife within a period of forty-eight hours.

While the madman apparently
slashes persons without mercy,
he does not harm babies. Three children of two of the families he attacked
were left unharmed in their cots.

The latest victim of the killer, described by the police as "a fiend, a crazy man," was Harold Stribling, twenty-three, former high school football star, and his wife, who were attacked early to-day as they slept.

He entered the Stribling home at 3 o'clock, beating Stribling's head after a struggle, then calmly turned on the lights, washed his hands and asked Mrs. Stribling to see the baby. He stood over his crib for several minutes, then forced Mrs. Stribling to go with him to the East Omaha swamps, where she finally escaped after three hours.
Stribling, doctors say, will probably be released in a few days.

PARENTE NOW IN U.S. PRISON

Seattle, Nov. 20.—Joseph L. Parente, formerly reputed "bootleg king" of San Francisco, was taken from the King County jail to McNeil Island
federal prison to-day.

Federal officials say Parente will be called to San Francisco later under habeas corpus proceedings.

Parente was arrested last week in Vancouver, B.C., after a search of several months.

NO COLLEGE DEGREE, NO LARGE BEQUEST

Duluth, Minn., Nov. 20.—A college degree is worth $92,000—
sometimes. That is what it has cost Samuel Vanderpoel Gilbert in the settlement of the estate of his late uncle, Arthur E. Gilbert. Ten years ago the uncle died, leaving stock worth $92,000 to his nephew, providing the young man graduated from Cornell University before he was twenty-five years of age. Samuel could not produce a degree at the time the bequest was made, and the shares have been ordered given to the former Mrs. Arthur E. Gilbert,
now Mrs. George Stone.

Floated Twenty Hours In Ocean Till Rescued

Of all the survivors of the lost steamship Vestris taken out of the Atlantic by searching ships, the rescue of none so thrilled the crews as that of Mrs. Clara Ball, a stewardess of the lost liner, and Paul A. Dana, representative of the Radio Corporation of America in South America, who had been a passenger. Their fight against the Atlantic from the time they were thrown into the sea as the Vestris sank till the steamship American Shipper picked them up is estimated at twenty hours. At times they clung to wreckage and at times they swam. When the American Shipper sighted them they were swimming toward it from a mile away. Capt. S. Cummings of the American Shipper, described them in his report as "two of the pluckiest people I ever met." The picture above was taken after the rescue ship had landed them at New York last Wednesday.

PULP MILLS HEAR WARNING FROM ONTARIO

Premier Advises Companies to Cease Trying to Assassinate Each Other

Toronto, Nov. 20.—The executives of fifteen pulp and "paper" companies operating in Ontario have been told by Premier G. Howard Ferguson that unless they "give up the plan" of assassination in the next few days, the Ontario government "is going to take a hand."

The Premier made this statement
in explaining a letter he addressed yesterday to the companies, calling attention to the "very unfortunate condition" of the industry and stating the Government did not intend to "stand quietly by and see settlers in a keen struggle with small investors all over the province have their savings jeopardized while those responsible for the efficient operation of this business spend their efforts in a keen competition to decide who can get the largest share of the market for his own particular mill, regardless of what becomes of the rest of the industry or how the public interest is generally affected."

Toronto, Nov. 20.—Stating that
"methods have been pursued that have created what appears to be a condition of chaos," Premier Ferguson of Ontario has addressed a letter to the heads of all pulp and paper companies operating in Ontario, calling attention with regret to the fact that "defares has occurred with respect to a number of the conditions and obligations."

IMMIGRATION MAN RETURNS TO COAST

On Way to B.C. Inspector Cowell at Montreal Talks of Chinese Population

Montreal, Nov. 20.—Unless some of the ingenious devices of those attempting to smuggle Chinese into Canada have been successful, not an individual from China has entered the Dominion since 1923, exclusive of those returning to Canadian domiciles established previous to that year," declared W. C. Cowell, investigating inspector of immigration for the Pacific region under the Federal Government, who arrived in Montreal to-day in the liner Andania. He is returning to Vancouver after visiting his former home
on the Isle of Man.

Mr. Cowell was reluctant to discuss immigration policies, but offered some information. Prior to 1923, he said, there was a law prohibiting Chinese women from coming to Canada. This had done much to limit the growth of the Chinese population in Canada,
because the Chinese, he pointed out,
were potently prolific.

Of the 100,000 odd Chinese in Canada now, many contributed toward Vancouver's population, he said, and all of these Chinese complete records were kept, including photographs.

But those born in Canada were legally Canadians and were not registered, he said, except for the purpose of facilitating their return from visits to China.

OPPONENT HAD KNIFE, COLORED MAN DECLARES

Freeman Fletcher, Charged With Attempted Murder, Takes Witness Stand

Taking the stand in his own defense at the Victoria Assizes
this morning, Freeman Fletcher
Fletcher, colored race track follower, charged with attempted murder, denied using a knife on William Canning in a fight on the deck of the Ss. Adelaide on the way to Vancouver, August 23.

The eleven wounds Canning received, Fletcher said, were caused by a knife in his own hands as Fletcher forced Canning's arm away to protect himself from the knife in the fight which followed a dispute arising during an exciting dice game.

W. C. Moresby, K.C., appears for the Crown and Stuart Henderson for the defense.

APPEAL AGAINST EXECUTION FAILS

Chung Yi Miao to Be Hanged
For Murdering Wife in England

London, Nov. 20.—Chung Yi Miao,
young Chinese student from New York,
to-day lost his battle for life, when he had waged before the Criminal Court of Appeal.

The court this morning dismissed
the appeal of the young Chinese from a conviction and death sentence for the murder of his wife, Wai Shung Miao. The young woman was found strangled to death near Keewick
shortly after the arrival of the couple in England on their honeymoon. They had been married in New York, where both had been students at Columbia University. The young Chinese was sentenced to death at Carlisle on October 24.

When the appeal came up yesterday,
Chung, who received his legal training in the United States, conducted his own case.

mann, Foreign Minister, by the overwhelming vote of 219 to 98.

BORDER RULING MADE BY COURT

U.S. Judge Allows Sixty-one Non-native Canadians to Cross Daily

Detroit, Mich., Nov. 20.—Federal Judge Charles C. Simons yesterday granted sixty-one aliens residing in Canada border cities temporary injunctions restraining John L. Surbrink, United States district director of immigration, from preventing them from commuting daily into this country to work. The petitioners were able to prove an immigration order denying them the commuting privilege was the only bar to their entry. Judge Simons had held previously the order involved was invalid.

Robert W. Stewart Acquitted at Trial

Washington Talks Of Anti-war Pact

Washington, Nov. 20.—Rumors of a delay in approval by the United States of a treaty renouncing war are floating about the capital even before a word
of opposition has been openly uttered
against the pact.

The rumors have been traced to sources favoring an extra session of Congress under the new administration, but no one will speak of the probability of holding up the peace treaty as a club for an extra session.

IN VANCOUVER 88 CHINESE ARE TAKEN IN RAIDS

Vancouver, Nov. 20.—Gambling raids carried out here by Detective Sergeant J. H. Jewitt and members of the police morality squad last evening resulted in a seizure of 88 Chinese.
$1,940 by way of fines, together with about $50 found on the tables. The raids were made on a place on Pender Street East, where Lem Sing and forty inmates were arrested, and at another place on Pender Street East, where Chew Pei and forty-six inmates fell into the net.

PATULLO AT VANCOUVER

Vancouver, Nov. 20.—T. D. Patullo,
M.P.P. for Prince Rupert, former Minister of Lands, returned to the Coast to-day after an extended visit to Eastern Canada.

Vancouver, Nov. 20.—Driven
on the rocks at Point Upwood,
at the south end of Texada Island, shortly after last midnight, the motorship Arran
Firth, owned by Frank Waterhouse & Company of Canada Limited, is reported to be in a precarious condition.

The tugboat Hawser, owned by the Hopkins Brothers Towing Company, sighted the distress flares of the distressed vessel and proceeded through an easterly
gale to assist. It is still standing by.

Officers and crew of the Arran
Firth escaped to the tide washed rocks and eventually to shore.
Captain E. McMillen, master of the ship, is now at Pender Harbor awaiting instructions.

STRUCK IN GALE

The Arran Firth, laden with a general cargo for Rivers Inlet and way
ports, sailed from Vancouver at 8.30 p.m. Monday, her first scheduled call being Powell River. Apparently she was going up the inside passage to get shelter from the easterly gale when she struck. No details of the accident have been received.

VESSELS SENT

The Vancouver Drydock and Salvage Company Limited has dispatched a salvage outfit to the scene, and one of the tugboats of the Pacific Coast Navigation Company Limited has also gone to the motorship's aid.

The Arran Firth is a steel vessel built in 1921 at South Shields and brought out here four years ago by F. Waterhouse and Company for coastal work.
She is 138 feet long, 23 feet beam and 9.7 feet deep.

Zealand at the International Aeronautical Convention, to be opened in Washington December 12.

U.S. RIVERS CAUSE GREAT FLOOD LOSSES

Mississippi and Missouri Out-of Banks at Points; Seventeen Lives Lost

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 20.—To the legions of "Mr. River," himself, the deep, rolling untractable Mississippi was pouring to-day the anger of the late Autumn floods. Leaves near Quincy, Ill., had crumbled, permitting the waters of swollen tributaries to sweep over thousands of acres of corn, wheat and rye on both the Missouri and Illinois sides of the Mississippi.

With this flood and damage done by the Kentucky and Cumberland rivers
in Kentucky, the uncontrolled waters to-day had claimed seventeen lives and inflicted property losses roughly estimated at $10,000,000. In Missouri, Kansas and Oklahoma, where fourteen lives have been lost and where property damage has been heaviest,
a recession of the waters was making possible a survey of the worst November flood damage these states have ever known.

GREAT MENACE

This was true, however, more particularly in Kansas and Oklahoma, for across Missouri the river that has the same name continued to be a raging menace.

The Missouri was dangerously close to flood stage across the entire state and the inundation of great areas of bottom lands near St. Louis was feared.
The smaller streams in this territory were choked with water and many railway lines and highways throughout the state were blocked. The number of homeless men high into the thousands. One thousand were driven from their dwellings in five Kentucky communities alone.

MCLEOD BRINGS FINE ROMANTIC PLAY TO ROYAL

Brilliant New British Star Given Enthusiastic Reception Here

Company of Outstanding Artists Seen in Colorful Colonial Drama

Gordon McLeod, already well known to Victoria theatre-goers as Sir Martin Harvey's leading man, returned to the Royal Victoria Theatre last night, a star in his own right and backed by an English company of outstanding merit.

In the category of romantic costume plays, which the company opened a week's run, to be followed Thursday by "A Bill of Divorcement," "Miss Elizabeth's Prisoner" is a gay, colorful story of the American Revolutionary War, set in an old colonial mansion with a background of gorgeous uniforms, hoop skirts, top boots and sword play. It is one of those dramas that sweeps from one climax to another and spiced with a generous sprinkling of comedy. In acting, staging and costuming Mr. McLeod has made the most of a very excellent vehicle.

IN GIVEN OVATION
The house which greeted the English players last night was small but undoubtedly it will be larger during the rest of the week, when the quality of their work becomes better known. The first night audience thundered with approval at intervals during the whole evening and at the end recalled Mr. McLeod no less than seven times to answer its applause.

It was a flattering return for Mr. McLeod to a stage where his talents in the past have necessarily been subordinated to those of Sir John Martin Harvey. Having proved himself as a character actor, as a desperate French revolutionary in "The Only Way," a villainous marquis in "Scaramouche," a ruthless sleuth in "The Lyons Mail," a rugged cigarette maker in "A Cigarette Maker's Romance," Mr. McLeod is seen as a gallant officer and a passionate lover in "Miss Elizabeth's Prisoner." It is a part which suits him better than any in which he has played here before and it places him definitely among the leading romantic actors of the day.

His determined and extraordinary versatility, Mr. McLeod carries the play along with him at a rather furious rate, for "Miss Elizabeth's Prisoner" is one of those stories which give you little time to breathe between moments of suspense. There is just enough humor in the star's part, however, to show his genuine talent as a comedian.

WELL-BALANCED COMPANY
Possibly the most gratifying feature of Mr. McLeod's sudden rise to star's estate is the fact that he has not sought to subordinate his company to himself.

His theory, the new actor-manager said in his dressing-room after last night's performance, "is that a theatrical company should be all up to a high standard and not dependent on the work of an individual."

This theory has been carried out in the company and is abundantly justified in the current play. Every actor who has a speaking part is a trained artist.

Mr. McLeod was particularly fortunate in his choice of a leading lady in Miss Lilian Christine, who adds great beauty to outstanding talent. Her part called for difficult emotional acting in which she was superb, combined with a recurring vein of comedy which showed her as an able comedienne.

ALL PARTS WELL PLAYED
Some of the best moments are furnished by Aubrey Mallalieu as Mr. Valentine, the part of a country squire of George Washington's time, who had turned two wives and a hope to do much for a third. Mr. Mallalieu is a character actor quite capable of carrying a heavy part with any company on the stage.

Opposite him is Miss Olive Walter, as Mistress Sarah Williams, a romantic-minded lady of middle age. She is an experienced actress, whose comedy production is one of the most delightful scenes of the play.

The part of the villain, a swaggering soldier in the army of King George, is admirably played by P. Kynaston.

Capitol—Estelle Brody, "Mademoiselle From Armentieres."

THE STAGE
Coliseum—The Lee Jaxon Players in "The Shadows of New York."
Royal—Gordon McLeod's London Company in "Miss Elizabeth's Prisoner."

Reeves, and of particular merit was the vivid performance of Stanley Browne, as an old servant at Phillipe Manor House.

"Miss Elizabeth's Prisoner" will be repeated by Mr. McLeod and his able company to-night and Wednesday night, followed by "A Bill of Divorcement" on the three remaining evenings of the week.

WAR COMEDY ON SCREEN AT THE CAPITOL THEATRE

"Mademoiselle From Armentieres," the magnificent British Gaumont war film distributed by Metro-Goldwyn, was shown last night at the Capitol Theatre, combining the comedies and tragedies of war in most stirring fashion. The early scenes in the film are chiefly concerned with the humor of life in billets and the beginnings of a misunderstanding between the French girl and her British soldier sweetheart and the action of the play is transferred to the front line and an attack in which Tommy takes part.

The film finishes appropriately enough, with victory and a laugh—and a surprise climax to the romance of Mademoiselle and her soldier sweetheart.

On the stage at the Capitol for this week are Bessie and Dorey, two English banjo artists; MacDonald and McConn, a clever, sinking and dancing duo; and Audrey Anderson, dramatic soprano.

He has "bits" struggling along for years with my inferiority complex, trying not to be a shrinking violet, and what happens? The casting director of FBO, Richard B. Bell, says when I am a smart Aleck, one of those kind of birds who is good and knows it and doesn't mind telling the rest of the world about it. About the rules like this and I probably will start talking out of turn at home.

The first role "Skeets" refers to was "Alex the Great," the FBO special directed by Dudley Murphy, now running at the Playhouse Theatre. His work in this was such a sensation that he was almost immediately to play in another of Mr. Murphy's pictures for FBO, "Stocks and Blondes."

At the start he is a broker's boy who spears his boss and tells the stock trader how to do it. At the finish he has his arms around Jacqueline Logan and is a partner of his employer, and in the interim a large number of laughs have been taken place.

FAMOUS RUSSIAN ACTRESS HAS ROLE IN COLUMBIA FILM

Totally unknown to picture fans, Olga Baklanova, who plays one of the leading roles with Norma Talmadge in "The Dove" at the Columbia Theatre, is one of the most famous actresses on the Russian stage. She is the youngest artist ever to have been accorded the distinction of being named "The People's Artist of the Republic" by the Russian Government.

Her popularity abroad was so great that she created the role of Carmen in the Moscow Art Theatre. The Moscow Studio's production of "Carmenita and the Soldier," that Morris Gest brought her to the United States. In California she played the role of the Russian "Miracle," which spectacle has been produced in all the large cities of America. It was during this time that Mme. Baklanova was loaned to the screen by Morris Gest.

LEE JAXON COMPANY IN FINE ATTRACTION AT THE COLISEUM

With the scenes laid in a little village just outside of New York City, the Lee Jaxon Players opened the current week at the Coliseum Theatre last evening in a play entitled "The Shadows of New York." The scenery this week is especially noteworthy, showing an old thatched cottage with roses growing in the trellis work over the walls and a most realistic conservatory in the background.

The story is woven around a rich man who dies supposedly without a will and whose nephew comes in to take possession of his great wealth. A servant in the house, however, happens to come across the old man's will in the pocket of an old dress suit and this changes the plot. Instead of the nephew inheriting the wealth, it is given to a faithful housemaid. But she, in order to marry a poor man, fears up the valuable document and the young nephew gets the estate after all.

SHOWING AT THE CAPITOL

Scene from Mademoiselle From Armentieres at the Capitol to-night and to-morrow.

woman of the village, continually bewailing the death of the rich man, and Harold Val Allyn is well cast in the character role of a butler.

On the screen this week is Laura La Plante in "Finders Keepers." The petite blonde star is showing in her latest film release, and is at her best this year.

LIVE BEARS HAVE PARTS IN PICTURE AT THE DOMINION

Edwin Carewe has discovered temperament lists not only in the actors and actresses under his direction.

The producer, in filming "Revenge," starring Dolores Del Rio for United Artists release, which opened yesterday at the Dominion Theatre, experienced some genuine temperamental demonstrations with fifty-two large bears used in the picture.

Carewe selected one bear for a certain scene, the others became enraged with jealousy. If he used the same bear two or three times for some particular episode, the bear being worked developed a streak of temper and went through a regular series of show-off antics for the benefit of his fellow bears on the side-lines.

Carewe had to wait such time, as his animal actors relieved themselves of mood complexes. One hour of the day would find a bear actor willing to do anything he was called upon to do, but the next hour was just as apt to find him unwilling and moody, as some human artists become on occasions.

FAMOUS PLAYS HERE SHORTLY

Shakespearean Repertoire Will Be Presented Here All Next Week at Royal

A theatrical engagement of notable importance under playgoers and students of this city will be that of the Stratford-upon-Avon Festival Company at the Royal Victoria Theatre commencing next Monday.

The director of the Memorial Theatre, W. Bridges Adams, accompanied the organization, and will personally supervise every performance. The present tour is for the double purpose of acquainting the public in Canada and the United States with the work being done in an artistic way, by the Memorial Association; and also to add to the fund already subscribed for the rebuilding of the Shakespeare Memorial at Stratford-upon-Avon.

The beautiful building, which was erected fifty years ago, was destroyed by fire in 1899. The required sum for rebuilding and endowment is $2,500,000, and already two-thirds of the sum has been raised. It is expected that the American tour of the company will net a considerable sum to be added to the fund, as well as that it will demonstrate to the public the "attractiveness" and beauty of Shakespeare's plays when presented in a logical, clear and intelligent manner.

The repertoire arranged for the engagement at the Royal Victoria Theatre is as follows: Monday evening, "The Taming of the Shrew"; Tuesday evening, "King Richard the Third"; Wednesday matinee, "The Merchant of Venice"; Thursday evening, "King Henry the Fourth," part one; Friday evening, "Hamlet"; Saturday matinee, "Julius Caesar"; and Saturday evening, "The Merry Wives of Windsor."

E. HOHENZOLLERN MARRIES WIDOW

Son of Ex-Kaiser Becomes Fourth Husband of Mrs. J. Schwarz

London, Nov. 20.—An Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Berlin quotes the newspaper Die Welt as saying a wealthy widow of the United States named Schwarz has been married to ex-Prince Eitel Friedrich, second son of Wilhelm Hohenzollern, former Kaiser of Germany.

A month ago there were rumors that Mrs. Siechen Schwarz, of New York was to marry ex-Prince Eitel, and she issued a denial, saying: "You may deny all stories of my engagement, marriage or intention to marry Prince Eitel."

Mrs. Schwarz was born in Brunswick, Germany, the daughter of Paul Isenber, a sugar grower in the Hawaiian Islands. Her first marriage to Adolph Wendroth in Bremen in 1898 was ended by a divorce three years later. She married Herman Siechen, a coffee merchant of New York and Baden, Germany, in October, 1913, and he died in October, 1917. In 1922 Mrs. Siechen married Joseph Schwarz, Russian baritone, who sang with the Chicago and San Francisco Opera Companies. He died in Berlin in 1926.

She is reputed to be worth nearly $5,000,000.

Hindu Citizens Of U.S. Are Recognized

Washington, Nov. 20.—The Government disclosed yesterday before the United States Supreme Court that it had adopted a policy of considering as United States citizens all Hindus naturalized prior to the court's decision two years ago that they were not entitled to citizenship as members of a yellow race.

This stand was revealed when Solicitor-General Mitchell moved to have the appeal of Shanker Lakshman Gokhale, a native Hindu, naturalized in Schenectady County, N.Y., vacated with the understanding that the judgment of a trial court, canceling his naturalization, would be set aside and that he would be permitted to retain his United States citizenship. The Solicitor-General told the court the Government had decided not to contest the citizenship of those Hindus naturalized before the Supreme Court's decision.

Justice Jennings refused yesterday in the District of Columbia Supreme Court to direct a verdict of not-guilty in the perjury trial of Robert W. Stewart, chairman of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana, as requested by the defence.

British Harvesters Would Come Again

London, Nov. 20.—More than 300 letters have been received by Canadian Government officials in London from harvesters now back in Britain after working in Canada, expressing their desire to return to Canada next spring.

Mr. Hon. L. C. M. S. Amery, Secretary for Dominion Affairs, revealed in the House of Commons yesterday afternoon.

The Minister said he believed most of the harvesters who had remained in Canada had found winter work. He was endeavoring to keep in touch with them.

Asked whether, when the men had returned to Britain, they had been treated as deportees, the Minister replied in the negative. He also said he was without any evidence regarding the suggestion that some of those remaining had gone to the United States.

SEMI-AUTOMATIC RIFLES ARE TESTED

Report on New Development in War Preparation Is Made in U.S.

Washington, Nov. 20.—When the next national emergency arises the soldiers of the United States probably will be armed with semi-automatic shoulder rifles that will increase their firing power and insure them more protection than the present service rifle.

The new semi-automatic rifle is being tested. Major General R. H. Allen, chief of infantry, advised Secretary of War Davis in this annual report, made public yesterday.

"These tests indicate clearly the practicability of an eventual replacement of the present magazine rifle with a semi-automatic rifle," General Allen said. "Conditions affected by weight of weapon and by weight of ammunition carried by the rifleman point strongly to a reduction of calibre."

LOVAT SCHEME IS DISCUSSED

Bonds Totalling $50,000,000 Called For By Immigration Plan For Canada

Ottawa, Nov. 20.—Published reports that the Government of Canada had rejected what has become known as the Lord Lovat immigration scheme were denied last night by Hon. Robert Forke, Minister of Immigration. When the Minister's attention was drawn to the reports he declared there was absolutely no warrant for the statement.

"The Lovat proposals have not yet been fully considered by the Federal Government, and no decision of any kind has yet been reached," he added.

TO SELL BONDS

The immigration scheme proposed by Lord Lovat would involve the sale of Canadian bonds to the extent of $50,000,000 to finance the settlement of British immigrants in Canada. The British Government would guarantee the bonds, while the immigrants would be required to meet their obligations on a long-term amortization plan. According to the proposal, Canada would enlist the emigrants, arrange for their transportation and supervise their settlement and provide farm homes and equipment. Twenty thousand settlers would be brought to Canada each year under the scheme.

FOR YOUNG SETTLERS

Ottawa, Nov. 20.—Extension of the scheme of free passage to boys and girls up to nine years of age belonging to agricultural families in Great Britain, coming to Canada for farm work, was announced yesterday by the Department of Immigration. For the last three years free passages have been given in such cases between the ages of fourteen and seventeen years. The extension in the age limit is the result of negotiations just completed with the British Government.

The cost will be borne in equal shares by the two Governments. The fare from the Canadian port to points in Ontario and east is $80 and $100 to points west of the Ontario-Manitoba boundary. The boys and girls will be brought for placement in selected homes, by either the provincial authorities or the juvenile migration societies. In the former case the younger people will be under the supervision and control of the Provincial Government; in the latter case supervision will be conducted by the Federal Government. In certain cases training in farming, according to Canadian methods, is given in Great Britain.

QUARTER MILLION IS ASKED

City Council Decides to Put By-laws Totalling $225,000 to People

Jubilee Hospital Board Says $100,000 Will Suffice as City Aid For New Wing

Referendum by-laws asking the sanction of the ratepayers to a total expenditure of $225,000 will be placed before the people on December 13, as a result of a decision taken by the City Council last night to add a $100,000 hospital by-law to the $125,000 measure seeking the construction of the new technical school.

H. H. Shandley, acting as spokesman for a delegation of directors of the board of the Royal Provincial Jubilee Hospital, stated that $100,000 would be required from the city to complete other arrangements made to finance the construction of a new nurses' home, and additional accommodation. "At a total estimated cost of $225,000, if the city would put a by-law authorizing the payment of $100,000 to this work, nothing would remain to hinder the improvement of conditions no longer found supportable at the institution," said Mr. Shandley.

George McGregor, James Forman, Miss Mitchell and supporters of the hospital completed the delegation which made the request.

TAXED FOR SPACE
Mr. Shandley explained that accommodation at the hospital was severely taxed. Upwards of ninety-six pupils nurses, he said, were now accommodated four to a room, with seventy-six other nurses in the old nurses' home. The construction of a new nurses' home would relieve this congestion, and at once make possible additional accommodation for sixty-five patients in the hospital itself.

It would only be a matter of two years, continued Mr. Shandley, before an additional wing would be required for the hospital in any event, but the variation of the present buildings by the nursing staff would afford some relief for a little time to come. Satisfactory assurance of Provincial aid had already been secured, he said.

Tracing the history of the institution, Mr. Shandley said the Jubilee had sprung from two hospitals, the old Royal and the French hospitals, and had been incorporated in 1887. Representation on its board was assigned to the city, Oak Bay, Esquimalt and Saanich, as well as direct nomination by the Provincial authorities, and representatives from the founding organizations. It was operated by finance, house and grounds committees, but these were without powers to borrow.

BY-LAW SANCTIONED
Alderman James Adam moved that the by-law to raise $100,000 towards the work be put before the electorate on December 13, and Alderman John Worthington seconded the motion. The council passed the resolution without dissent, the vote being 10 to 1. At the time of the introduction of the delegation to the closing vote taking less than ten minutes.

George McGregor voiced the thanks of the directors, stating that the question of additional accommodation had been carefully considered from every angle by the board, and that no other course was open.

NEED FURTHER TIME
The council then followed the technicalities of the early closing by-law, under the Shops Regulation Act, for an hour and a half, before deciding that it would need still further time to successfully complete consideration of the store control measure.

STUDENTS TO GOVERN CHINA

Dr. Philip Chu Tells Gyo Club of Objectives of National Government

The Chinese National Revolutionary party, Dr. Philip Chu, reviewed yesterday before the Gyo Club by Dr. Philip Chu of Vancouver, in an address at the Chamber of Commerce.

"This is the reconstruction period," Dr. Chu said, pointing out that education is being widely established by the present government of China. In 1914 the schools had 2,000,000 students, while in 1924 there were 14,000,000 students, a number greatly exceeded to-day.

EX-STUDENTS CONTROL
"China is going to be an independent country. The Nationalists are going to develop China according to what the young Chinese students in foreign lands are learning. The higher officials of China to-day are ninety-five per cent of them graduates of Western universities," he said.

"The peoples of different countries cannot know each other merely by reading books. They must know each other personally, to be able to understand each other. More of our young students must come to Canada to study in your universities," said Dr. Chu.

Dr. H. Johns rendered two rollicking sea songs, being accompanied by Miss Hicks.

Hon. R. L. Mattland, K.C., of Vancouver, was among the guests attending the luncheon.

ASPIRIN

The whole world knows Aspirin as an effective antidote for pain. But it's just as important to know that there is only one genuine Aspirin. The name Bayer is on every tablet, and on the box. If the name Bayer appears, it's genuine; and if it doesn't, it's not! Headaches are dispelled by Aspirin. So are colds, and the pain that goes with them; even neuralgia, neuritis, and rheumatism promptly relieved. Get Aspirin—at any drugstore—with proven directions.

Physicians prescribe Aspirin; it does NOT affect the heart

Aspirin is the trade mark (registered in Canada) indicating Bayer Manufacture. While it is well known that Aspirin means Bayer manufacture, to assure the public against imitation, the Tablets will be stamped with their "Bayer Cross" trademark.

Much Success Attends City Temple Bazaar

The first day of the bazaar of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the City Temple proved most successful yesterday, many hundreds of people being in attendance with splendid financial results accruing to the organization. A capacity audience saw and appreciated a splendid programme prepared last night for the bazaar visitors and the fine dancing by the pupils of Mrs. L. H. Gaskill's Art Dancing School won high praise. The following pupils took part in a widely diversified programme of the terpsichorean art: Barrie Taylor, Ethel Holt, Peggy Bartley, Myra Edwards, Geraldine Holden, Francis Merryfield, Patricia Pennock, Dena Pasto, Agnes Kennedy, Dulce Hamlet and Iris Gaskill.

Orchestral selections during the evening were rendered by Lucy Bosward, Marion Thornborough and Mr. Sandahl. Miss Ethel Parsons sang acceptably, accompanied by Miss Muriel Hemmion, and Mrs. W. D. Todd, accompanied by Grace Deaville, sang a rousing number "Come to the Fair." A white-clothed performer having all the lights out while his clubs were illuminated with vari-colored lights. Fletcher Bros. Electro rendered the incidental music for the evening as well as for the dance programme, other dance numbers being accompanied by Mr. Gaskill on the piano. Master George Tule, in a most finished manner, gave "Danny Boy" as his violin number, accompanied by Mrs. George Langley.

BRISK SALE
The sale of all the stalls was very brisk, many buying for the approaching Christmas gift season. Mrs. S. F. Tolinie opened the affair in a most charming manner, receiving from the ladies a corsage bouquet after the opening. To-night the programme will begin at 7:30 o'clock when the stalls may be visited. Gypsyland will be occupied by several of the city's most notable character readers and delineators and crystal gazers. This feature was well patronized yesterday. To-day is the last day of the bazaar.

Sale of Work—A sale of work will be held to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. The ladies here will be preparing for some time and full tables of fancy work, aprons, handkerchiefs, novelties, home cooking and candy will be ready for sale. Anyone desirous of buying Christmas gifts would do well to attend.

WIDOW FORMER LT. GOVERNOR IS NINETY-NINE

Mrs. T. R. McInnes, Vancouver Pioneer, Celebrating Birthday To-day

Vancouver, Nov. 20.—Mrs. T. R. McInnes, former chateleine of Government House at Victoria when her husband, the late Dr. T. R. McInnes, was lieutenant-governor, is to-day receiving the congratulations of her family and friends upon the attainment of the ninety-ninth anniversary of her birth. Mrs. McInnes is mother of former judge and governor of the Yukon, W. B. McInnes, and T. R. E. McInnes, the Canadian poet and well-known lawyer, and Mrs. James Wilson of New Westminster.

Born at Dresden, Ont., she came to British Columbia with her husband and young family in 1874. Four years later Dr. McInnes was elected to represent New Westminster in the House of Commons. He was appointed to the Senate in 1881. In 1897 he resigned the senatorship to accept the appointment of Lieutenant-Governor of British Columbia.

Mrs. McInnes is in possession of all her faculties and makes the trip from Vancouver to New Westminster to visit her daughter several times each week. She attends to all her own domestic arrangements in her home on Davis Street, and evinces a keen interest in current affairs.

Several interesting little social gatherings have been arranged in her honor to-day.

CONSERVATIVES ASK SUPPORT FOR PLUNKETT

Speakers Complain of Lethargy Towards Anti-Government Candidate

Arrangements for the Conservative women's rally and reception to be held in the Amphitheatre Hall, Yates street, to-morrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock were completed at the meeting of the Conservative Women's Association last night. Mrs. A. Gillis, president, presided over the meeting. Mrs. F. Green is general convener for the affair, assisted by Mrs. Fairweather, Mrs. Bowden and Miss Bowron. A short musical programme will be given under the direction of Mrs. Bowden, while a capable committee, convened by Mrs. Chivers, will serve refreshments.

Speakers will include: Mrs. Rees-Burns, vice-president of the Edmonton Conservative Association; Hon. W. C. Shelly, Minister of Finance; Mr. J. Brady, Federal Member for Skeena, and Gen. A. Clarke of Vancouver. Committee rooms have been opened on Douglas Street, at Johnson Street, by the ladies, who will be in attendance daily to receive any Conservative interest in the forthcoming election. Any information desired may be obtained by telephoning 8951.

Miss L. Bowron, delegate to the British Columbia Association meeting in Vancouver on Saturday, gave an interesting report of the proceedings. A reference to the educational work being carried forward gave rise to a short discussion on the system now used of sending young and inexperienced teachers to outlying districts. It was decided to devote a meeting to further study of the question and Mrs. Toms, educational convener, will make arrangements for such a meeting early in December.

Bazaar Successful—The bazaar held on Friday by Princess Patricia Lodge was a great success. The bazaar was opened by Hon. S. F. Tolinie, and the following ladies were in charge: Mrs. E. Latham and Mrs. Beattie, candy stall; Mrs. Herring and Mrs. Graham, home cooking; Mrs. Brough, Mrs. Burdman, Mrs. Jane and Mrs. Thame, afternoon tea; Mrs. M. Latham, fish pond; Mrs. Lawson, plain sewing and aprons; Mrs. Restall, fancy work; Mrs. Clark, card and Mrs. Nicholson the cups. Mrs. Reeve was general convener. The committee wishes to thank all the members and friends who donated and helped to make the affair such a success, especially Mrs. Bertucci, Mr. Land, Miss Dorothy Thomas, Mrs. Hunt, Miss Violet Green and Jessie Cox, who, during their playing, singing and dancing so delighted the audience. Miss Graham won the tea-chest.

ASK FOR BETTER PROTECTION OF YOUNG TEACHERS

Recent Tragedy at Cowichan Lake Stirs Women's Council to Action

"That we, the Victoria Local Council of Women, deplore the recent tragic occurrence at Cowichan Lake, and appoint a committee to interview the Department of Education, asking that steps be taken for the protection of young teachers in isolated districts."

This resolution, passed at a meeting of the Council yesterday afternoon, was the outcome of a discussion evoked by the recent tragic occurrence at Cowichan Lake, when Miss Mabel Jones committed suicide following alleged unfair criticism. Mrs. William Grant moved the resolution and Mrs. A. E. Hopkins seconded it. The committee appointed to wait on the Department will include Miss Crease, Mrs. Grant, Mrs. Hopkins and Miss Duke.

FLAYS SALE OF LIQUOR BY GOVERNMENT

National W.C.T.U. Speaker Denounces Control System; Bar-room Scenes Described

Boston, Nov. 20.—Miss Rosamond Duff of Toronto, speaking before the fifty-fourth convention of the National Women's Christian Temperance Union, said that under government control in Canada "the sale of liquor means an increase in liquor, increase in drinking, increase in drunkenness, increase in accidents and increase in crime."

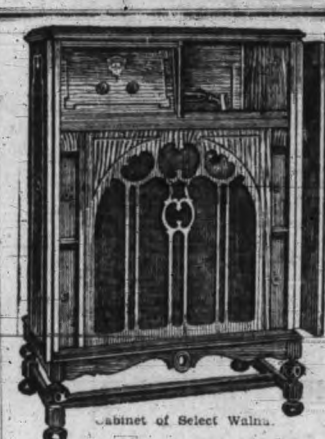

Miss Duff, who is secretary of the Ontario Women's Christian Temperance Union, declared government control had failed to prevent bootlegging or the sale of poisonous liquor in Canada.

RUBBING ALCOHOL
"We are told," she said, "that when 'good' liquor could be obtained no one would want the poison stuff. Yet with all the enormous quantity of liquor sold by the Government in Canada, so great is the use of rubbing alcohol as a beverage that one of the Government liquor officials declared that 75 per cent of all the rubbing alcohol now sold is being bought for drinking purposes."

"One has only to go to our courts to see the enormous increase in drinking among young people under government control in Canada. First offenders are increasing rapidly and in my city it is nothing unusual for a dozen young people to be turned over by the courts to the Salvation Army for reformation and this solely because of drink."

BOOTLEGGER RIFE
"In Quebec, one of the saddest places in our land with its huge taverns and a tremendous sale of liquor, I have seen people buying a quart at a time coming back several times a day. I have seen bootleggers buy it in broad daylight and then selling the liquor to drunkards who have been interdicted because of their habits."

"A Saturday night in a Northern Alberta town looks like a Saturday night in the bar-room days with crowded drinking places and men lying on the streets drunk. You can see young women drinking with men of all types. The old swing door is in evidence. The whisky bootlegger thrives on appetites started on government beer. Nor has government

Presbyterial Hears Of Coast Mission

Mrs. R. H. Mayhew, vice-president, presided at the November meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of the First United Church yesterday afternoon, in the absence of the president. The devotionals were taken by Mrs. Stewart's circle. Mrs. Skillings reading the Scripture, followed by sentence prayers from members of the circle.

In view of the annual meeting in December a nominating committee was appointed consisting of Mrs. D. McKillop, Mrs. McLennan, Mrs. Bear and Mrs. Schoeder. The treasurer, Mrs. McLennan, reported finances well in hand, and that $290 will be needed for the fourth quarter of the year. The supply secretary, Mrs. Billingsley, has all the necessary supplies in for the year.

Mrs. Calvert, the minute woman, gave some interesting and concise information on the liquor question in Great Britain, which is most encouraging. The meeting was fortunate in being able to secure E. Scott, the coast missionary on the west of the Island, to give an outline of his work. It was most interesting and struck a warm note of sympathy to those present, as Mr. Scott's boat, the Broadcaster, was christened and furnished by this Presbyterial.

B.C.'S BIRTHDAY CELEBRATED AT ENTERTAINMENT

Lady Douglas Chapter Sponsors
Sponsors Delightful Programme;
Dickens's Scenes

British Columbia's seventieth birthday was celebrated with a last night at the Empress Hotel when His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor, Miss MacKenzie, Premier Tolmie and other distinguished guests attended the annual entertainment arranged by the Lady Douglas Chapter I.O.E. The affair was one of several annual functions sponsored by the chapter in accordance with its motto "to keep one heart on the traditions of the past and green the memory of our illustrious dead."

Mrs. R. B. McKimling, regent of the chapter, welcomed the Lieutenant-Governor and Miss MacKenzie upon their arrival, and escorted them and their party, which included Mr. and Mrs. Robt. D. Porter and Captain W. H. Molson to their places, as the National Anthem was played. Mrs. McKimling was preceded by the standard bearer of the chapter.

PREMIER TOLMIE
Premier Tolmie in a brief opening address tendered his congratulations to the chapter for keeping alive the traditions of the past and the memory of the pioneers who had contributed so much to the upbuilding of British Columbia. He paid tribute to the late Sir James Douglas as a man of rare judgment and vision and in closing urged the younger generation to take good stock of all that Canada had to offer before seeking employment elsewhere.

Archibald Flower, chairman of the Shakespeare Memorial Theatre, Stratford-on-Avon, also spoke briefly during the evening. Lindley Crease, K.C., acted as chairman. Guy Goldard, the programme was unusually attractive and of an appropriate character, the various items and the costumes recalling early Victorian days. A number of excerpts from the works of Charles Dickens evoked much appreciative applause.

OLD SONGS ENJOYED
Mrs. W. H. Wilson sang delightfully in duet with Mr. W. C. Fyfe in the numbers "When You and I Were Young, Maggie" and "The Keys of Heaven" and again with Beverley Fyfe in "I Know a Bank" and "The A.B.C. Duet" wearing quaint costumes. These three singers also charmed the audience with the trios, "Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes" and "The Reginald Queen." Mrs. Clifford Warn in old-fashioned costume, lent sympathetic support at the piano.

DICKENS'S SCENES
Incidents from Dickens's works were cleverly presented in costume, including one from Dickens's "Martin Chuzzlewit," "A Division Between Friends," Sairey Gamp, Mrs. H. Sharpe, Betsy Prig, Mrs. E. C. Hayward; scene from Dickens's "Barnaby Rudge," "Stormy Scenes in the Varden Household," Mr. Varden, Randolph Stuart; Mrs. Varden, Mrs. Colin Cummins; Dolly Varden, Mrs. D. D. McTavish; Edward Chester, Hugh Allen; Misses, Mrs. A. M. Boyd; scene from "Nicholas Nickleby," "The Gentleman From Next Door," Mrs. Nickleby, Mrs. E. C. Hayward; Kate Nickleby, Mrs. Pat Sinnott, the harmless lunatic, W. Haslam Cochrane.

In the Barnaby Rudge scene, Mrs. D. D. McTavish very sweetly sang "My Own True Love."

CROSSING BUSY STREETS

One Mother Says:
My little son used to be very careless about crossing streets. He wouldn't "Stop, Look and Listen" and would refuse to take my hand. He thought he was too big. When I drew near the school time I knew that unless he was more careful I would be constantly worrying about him going to school alone, so I adopted a method which proved to be a good one. I told him that now he was such a big boy he should look out for me and see that I did not get run over while crossing the street. So now he looks in all directions and helps me across, hesitating when there is any doubt and he has so formed the habit of caution when we are together that he is ever so much more careful when he is by himself.

HON. MRS. PARLBY ON DIFFICULTIES OF EMIGRATION

Alberta Parliamentarian Returns From Tour of Great Britain

Montreal, Que., Nov. 20.—Difficulties which confront those agencies which are seeking to promote greater British immigration to Canada are fully realized by Hon. Irene Parlby, minister without portfolio in the Alberta Government. These difficulties rest largely with the people themselves, and the conditions which prevail in the Old Land, declares Mrs. Parlby, who reached Montreal Sunday on the Laurentian from an extended visit to Great Britain, accompanied by her son. They proceeded West on the Canadian National Railway Continental Limited to their home in Aik, Alberta.

Mrs. Parlby, herself an Englishwoman, has, with her husband, been engaged for many years in farming in the western provinces and has for almost as long a period been prominent in public affairs in Alberta.

Since 1922 she has been a member of the Brownlee cabinet without portfolio. She was also first president of the United Farmer Women of Alberta.

During her visit to the Old Land she took every possible occasion to study conditions with respect to immigration. She praised the work being done to encourage British settlers to come to Canada, and commended the Canadian National Railway organization in London, especially in juvenile immigration. She stated frankly that while she believed the Canadian authorities were doing all they could to promote immigration, certain vital factors militated against it.

One of these was the attitude of the women of Britain, who did much to discourage their men from coming out. This was a very natural attitude, but arose largely from mistaken ideas as to the hardships to be endured, and from a lack of understanding of the opportunities afforded. Mrs. Parlby found several very striking examples of this attitude following public addresses which she made.

ARE COMFORTABLE
"We must remember, too, that those who have work in the country are very comfortable; in fact, much more comfortable than they have ever been before. The wages they get are good, and with the comforts of modern life available more than ever to these people, and with old age pensions in effect, there is no particular urge for them to go to a new country."

"As to the unemployment, many of these are not adaptable immediately to farm work, and the process of training them is necessarily a slow one, although much good is being done on the training farms in operation."

Mrs. Parlby expressed her keen delight in being back in Canada again. She is an enthusiastic Canadian with a thorough belief in the country and its future.

MARY PICKFORD'S SISTER BEATEN

Here is Lottie Pickford, sister of Mary, who was recently kidnapped, beaten and robbed. Miss Pickford and her escort, Jack Daugherty, were returning from a night club in Los Angeles about 3 a.m., when four men attacked them, knocking Daugherty unconscious, and carrying Miss Pickford into the hills where she was beaten and robbed. She was later released.

PICTURES OF ROYAL FAMILY DONATED TO ISLAND CHILDREN

Mayne Island, Nov. 20.—Under the auspices of the Canadian Legion, Plumbers' Pass Branch, Lieutenant-Colonel Flick, D.S.O., gave the school children a most inspiring address on the part the British Empire took in the Great War and especially pointed out the splendid service of Canadian soldiers. After the address, Lady Constance Fawkes presented six photographs of the Royal Family to the school. They are of Queen Victoria, King Edward, Queen Alexandra, King George, Queen Mary and the Prince of Wales. The school was greatly honored as these pictures were especially picked out and dispatched by Her Majesty the Queen direct to Lady Fawkes, who some time ago wrote and told the Queen of the lack of pictures of the Royal Family in the school. Although it is not the custom to send such gifts to institutions and schools unless the Queen is closely connected with them, an exception has been made in the case of Mayne Island through the grace of Lady Fawkes. Three cheers were given for Lady Fawkes and Colonel Flick, after which "God Save the King" was sung.

A most enjoyable social evening was held in the hall in honor of the Rev. R. D. and Mrs. Porter, who are leaving here and going to Alberta. There was a musical programme: Mrs. Coles sang solos, Mrs. Foster played the guitar, and Rev. R. D. Porter, Mr. Houlgate and Mr. Anderson also sang solos. Mr. Burrell acted as accompanist. Captain Maude spoke a few words, after which he presented Mrs. Porter with a purse from her many friends as a remembrance of the island. Refreshments were served, the evening ending with the singing of "Auld Lang Syne" and "For They are Jolly Good Fellows."

Lady Constance Fawkes entertained at tea at her home, Culzean, in honor of Rev. R. D. and Mrs. Porter. People from every home on the island were present.

"Mr. Guernsey and Mr. T. Guernsey have gone to Victoria."

Rev. and Mrs. Porter have left for Victoria en route to Alberta. There were many friends on the wharf to say farewell.

Victorious Cubs Will Make Debut To-night

Packed House Will Witness First Game Of Pro Hockey Here

Premier S. F. Tolmie Will Face-off Puck and Set Victoria Cubs Against Frank Patrick's Vancouver Lions; Local Team Will Be Strengthened by Return of Cliff O'Meara; Victoria Players Confident of Winning; Game Will Get Under Way at 8.30 o'clock

With indications pointing towards a packed house, the Victoria Cubs will make their initial appearance before local fans to-night when they meet the Vancouver Lions in the opening game here of the Pacific Coast Hockey League. Mickey Ion will start the teams off promptly at 8.30 o'clock.

The league will be officially opened here when Premier Simon F. Tolmie drops the puck between the sticks of Jimmy Evans and Art Somers, centre men for Victoria and Vancouver respectively. Ion will then halt the play in order to give the Premier a chance to leave the ice and will then start the actual play.

TICKETS GO WELL

A considerable stream of fans went this morning to purchase their tickets. Stanley Patrick, head of the Victoria Arena Company, said he looked for a splendid crowd. Tickets have been going well since they were put on sale yesterday morning. Mr. Patrick stated that tickets not sold at the downtown office would be available at the arena to-night. If necessary, standing room tickets will be sold.

After their splendid victory over the Lions last night in Vancouver, the Cubs will no doubt be given a rousing welcome by the home fans. With one victory stowed away, the local team will step on the ice to-night with lots of confidence. A number of the younger members of the Cubs were nervous previous to last night's game but after the first twenty minutes they played first-class hockey. They are expected to set a fast pace to-night.

The Victoria team will be strengthened to-night by the addition of Cliff O'Meara, Manager Smith has decided to let the right winger get into the game for a few minutes. O'Meara was in uniform last night but was not allowed to get into action. With another forward in action the Lions will have to roar mightily loud if they hope to get two points in the win column.

No injuries were reported on the Victoria club following the opening game. All the boys are feeling fit and trim for their second encounter with the Mainland boys. Borland and Runge, two of the heaviest men on the Cubs, are expected to go better to-night. Both are not yet in first-class condition and will improve greatly as they get a few games under their belts.

Frank Patrick arrived in town this afternoon with his Lions. The Vancouver team is feeling over its setback last night and will be out to reverse the decision and get on to even terms with the Cubs.

OUTSIDERS TO BATTLE HERE

Young McCoy to Fight Art Fry of Vancouver in Main Event of Amateur Card

Six local amateur fighters will meet outside competition at the Tillamook Athletic Club on Saturday when five Mainland boys and one Chemainus lad journey to Victoria to exchange blows with the boxers of this city.

Young McCoy, who has recently come to the front here, will step into the ring against Art Fry of Vancouver in the main event, and if he shows the spirit he displayed when he gained a technical knockout over H. Graham a short time ago the Vancouver boy will have to fight all the way to offset the Victoria boxer's aggressiveness.

Frank Hall, a hefty Victoria middleweight, will meet Harry Lindstrom, another fast and heavy-hitting Mainlander.

Sonny Buxton and Cliff Dawley will exchange blows in what should prove an interesting tussle. Both boys have shown lots of fight in all bouts in which they have participated.

Walter Shoultz, a clever boxer who has frequently displayed his talent in the city will meet Frank Pierce of Vancouver.

Cathy Howard of Chemainus will meet Jack Hannan of this city. In Hannan's last fight he showed wonderful stamina to come back in the last round and gain a decision after hitting the canvas at the beginning of the bout.

Clarence Leask, one of Victoria's coming young boxers, will match his skill against Bert Anderson of Vancouver in the other inter-city bout.

Young Buxton and Red McQueen will mix in the curtain raiser.

New Haven Defeat Providence Reds

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 20.—The New Haven Eagles team of Canadian-American Hockey League defeated the Providence Reds by a score of 5-2 last night. Gagnon starred for the visitors.

Overtime Game Is Won By Panthers

London, Ont., Nov. 20.—Scoring the winning goal with just a little over three minutes of the overtime period gone, Bert Corbett's young London Panthers defeated the final rivals of the Buffalo Bisons and forced them to take a 3-2 defeat after an exciting game here last night.

RANGERS WILL CROSS STICKS WITH MAROONS

Last Year's World's Series Contenders Will Battle in New York To-night

Canadiens Appear in Boston; Pittsburgh Go to Chicago; Players Hurt

Toronto, Nov. 20.—Games in New York, Boston, Ottawa and Chicago to-night bring eight of the ten teams in the National Hockey League into action. New York Americans and Detroit Cougars are the only idle ones. Maroons met the team which defeated them in the world championship series last Spring, when the Montrealers journeyed to New York for a contest with the Rangers. The Maroons have decided not to rest any of their defence men on farms to replace Munn, who has a heart ailment and may not play hockey again. Bill Phillips and Earl Robinson are available for relief centre duty and if an emergency arises on the defence, Hooley Smith can be dropped back.

RANGERS INJURED
Rangers report several minor injuries as a result of the heavy going in Sunday night's game with the Americans, but none of the players will be out of to-night's game.

The league leading Maple Leafs battle a Senator team this evening in Ottawa. Killea, brilliant Senator left winger, who has been out of the game with an injured toe, will be used for the first time this season. He probably will figure only as a relief man. Bill Tonkey holding down the regular right wing position, but he can be counted on to make his presence felt. Anxious to erase the memory of their defeat by the Maple Leafs, Canadiens cross sticks with the Boston Bruins in the American city.

Brutus and Chicago meet in the opening game of the season in Chicago.

Percy Jackson, the Vancouver goalie, was rated as being a little better than Earl Robertson, the Cubs' net-minder, but he failed to show it last night. Robertson played a splendid game and matched Jackson for spectacular saves. Taking into consideration that Robertson is only eighteen years of age, he is a mighty good goaltender.

One pleasing feature was the fact even with a one-goal lead both teams continued their three-man rushes to give the crowd good open hockey. In the days of the old Western Canada League, if one team had a one-goal lead they generally kept three men back in an effort to hold their advantage.

Barnyard Battlers —By Jimmy Thompson

"Barnyard Golf" is at last on the official sport calendar, the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada having duly organized a Canadian horse-shoe throwing competition, and set up a trophy symbolical of the Canadian championship. Last year this somewhat homely game was given lustre when two such notables as the Hon. W. D. Ross, lieutenant-governor of Ontario, and Premier Ferguson of the same province stepped into the arena at the Royal Winter Fair, Toronto, and before the eyes of admiring thousands stripped themselves for mortal combat and sought to circle the peg.

That opening match was followed by more serious stuff, in which sixteen-year-old W. J. Struthers of Sarina achieved the sensational when, unfurried by the plaudits of a vast crowd, he tossed ringer after ringer with an ease which proved at once the despair and downfall of even the most skilful old-timers. And when asked where he had mastered the game, he increased the general astonishment by replying that he had as yet scarcely begun to learn it. If that's how he then viewed it, and as he has since added a year's practice, he will need to be heavily handicapped if any one else is to have much chance when the play-offs for the Diamond Calk trophy, as it is called, are again held to-morrow night.

SHOWS HIS CLASS

defence player of the Victoria Cubs, who was the outstanding man on the ice in last night's game at Vancouver between the Cubs and Vancouver Lions. A fast skater, he packs a deadly shot as was evinced by the fact that he scored two of the Cubs' goals. He will no doubt be one of the premier defence men in the league.

Six Teams Will Play in Prairie Hockey League

Saskatoon, Sask., Nov. 20.—At one of the largest meetings in the history of the Saskatchewan Amateur Hockey Association, H. A. Ebbs of Saskatoon and Bill Williams, Regina, were returned to the positions of president and secretary by acclamation at the annual meeting held here Saturday. Other officials elected were as follows: Vice-president, Goldie Smith, Melville; executive committee, George Neils, Moose Jaw; Don Mitchell, Weyburn; Ken Kappell, Assiniboia; Was Champ, Regina; R. J. Gill, Broadview, and Percy Buckingham, Biggar.

A six-team senior league composed of Regina Aces, Regina Vics, Moose Jaw Tigers, Yorkton, Melville and Weyburn was formed and arrangements completed for each team to play nine home games.

Niagara Falls Win From Tigers

Niagara Falls, Ont., Nov. 20.—The Niagara Falls team last night defeated Hamilton Tigers, 3-2, here in a game in which the result was in doubt at all stages.

GARAGE MEN ORGANIZE NEW HOCKEY LOOP

Opening Games Saturday Night in Garage Commercial Hockey League

Four Teams Entered; Lou Tweedie Presents Fine Cup For Competition

Garage dealers gathered together last night as a result of the Garage Commercial Hockey League was organized with Bill Davis of H. A. Davis Limited as president, A. E. Humphries as vice-president and J. E. Miles, secretary-treasurer.

Four teams, Jameson Motors, A. E. Humphries Motors, H. A. Davis Limited and Thomas Plimley Limited, have entered and by the interest displayed last night the league should enjoy a successful season.

The opening games will be played on Saturday night commencing at 8.15 o'clock. The draw for the first games is as follows:

Thomas Plimley Limited versus H. A. Davis Limited.
Humphries Motors versus Jameson Motors.

Lou Tweedie, manager of the Home Oil Company, has donated a beautiful cup that will be competed for annually.

The centre forwards of the Plimley and Hitech and Baco teams will cross sticks at 7.30 p.m. Friday, when Alderman James Adam, president of the Commercial Hockey League, drops the puck between them to open the league.

At the conclusion of the opening game the Brilliant Tube and Filtrationettes will take the ice, while an hour later the Rink Rate, last year champions, will battle the Garrison in the final game of the evening.

This year a much higher brand of hockey should be seen in the loop, as all senior amateur players, except those who performed with the Victoria team last year, will be eligible for the league.

In previous seasons, a snappy bunch of youngsters have been playing in the division, and with the addition of a few seasoned veterans both trickiness and speed should be combined in future games.

The players are on edge for the opening encounters, and if their enthusiasm is an evidence of the real with which they intend to play, some excellent exhibitions should be given during the next few months.

SOCCER TEAMS RESUME PLAY

Final Games To-morrow in Hayward Cup Series; Hudson's Bay Play Rennies

Although Renne and Taylor have retained possession of the championship Wednesday League, soccer clubs will meet to-morrow in the final matches of the series. After a week's lay-off the clubs are all in first class shape and two rattling good games are expected. The games will get started at 2.30 o'clock.

At the Royal Athletic Park Rennies are scheduled to meet the Hudson's Bay. These two eleven are age old rivals and keen competition generally features their games. "Scotty" McKay will referee.

Sanich United will try conclusions with the Navy at Beacon Hill. The youngsters have not shown much so far this season, but they will most likely be heard from in future games. Hewison will handle the whistle in this match.

Next week the teams will start play for the Rennie and Taylor knockout trophy. This cup is at present held by the Bakers.

The teams will be as follows: Hudson's Bay—Shrimpton, Gardiner, Armstrong, Oakman, Clark, Kerchin, Addie, Woodley, Malr and Cull.

FOOTBALLERS MEET
The managers of all juvenile soccer teams will hold a special meeting in the Y.M.C.A. to-morrow evening at 7.30 o'clock.

COUNCIL APPROVES PARK PLAN

Historic Leechtown Area Would Make Wonderful Natural Park, It Is Stated

A scholarly address on the historic Leech River area which, it is proposed, should be reserved for all time as a natural park, was delivered by C. J. Harrison of the Alpine Club of Canada, before the City Council last night. Mr. Harrison was speaking on behalf of Post No. 1 of the Native Sons of British Columbia, which is supporting the proposal by the circulation of a petition seeking the reservation of Federal, railway and other lands in an unified national park plan. The address was illustrated by an interesting series of old-time lantern slides, dealing with the days when Leechtown was a prosperous gold mining settlement of 3,000 people. The railway lands lying between the West Coast and the city's watersheds at Sooke and Goldstream were the last link in the chain, said Mr. Harrison. If this land could also be secured for park purposes over 66,000 acres would be reserved in its natural state for posterity. This included some of the finest natural scenery in Canada, beautifully wooded and amply watered. The area included over fifty miles of historic trails, now kept open only by deer and deer, but of impelling attraction from a tourist and aesthetic standpoint. Mr. Harrison was accompanied by H. Kinsman for the Native Sons. Both were warmly thanked for their representations, and the authority of the council was granted to have the petition endorsed and circulated.

Sour Stomach

Sweetened instantly

Just a tasteless dose of Phillips' Milk of Magnesia in water. That is an alkali effective, yet harmless. It has been the standard antacid for 50 years among physicians everywhere. One spoonful will neutralize at once many times its volume in acid. It is the right way, the quick, pleasant and efficient way to kill the excess acid. The stomach becomes sweet, the pain departs. You are happy again in five minutes. Don't depend on crude methods. Employ the best way yet evolved in all the years of searching. That is Phillips' Milk of Magnesia. Be sure to get the genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia prescribed by physicians for 50 years in correcting excess acids. Each bottle contains full directions—any druggist. (Adv.)

FIRST READINGS SHOPS CLOSING BY-LAW RUSHED

An amending by-law designed to bring the early closing regulations into effect for stores in the city, received its first passage before the City Council last night. The council exhibited a desire to pass the by-law as quickly as possible, and to make any necessary amendments by way of a further measure after more mature reflection and at a later date. The new by-law is substantially the same as the old one, and provides for a penalty of $100 for any infringement of its terms. The text of the by-law is to be published in local papers by advertisement on December 1 and 2. Before the final passage of the new measure the city will take the advice of the retail merchants' section of the Chamber of Commerce, and the Retail Clerks' Association, as to any changes desired, and on which an agreement can be reached.

CITY LAND SALES ARE MAINTAINED

Sales Ratified By City Council
Last Night Total $9,375
Street Signs Drive Council to Special Meetings to Effect Control

Unabated interest in city lands was disclosed at the City Council meeting last night when sales to the extent of $9,375 were authorized to Victoria buyers, including former owners of reverted property now redeeming their holdings.

The sales ratified included a lot on the north side of Port Street, between Blanshard and Quadra Streets, for $3,068 cash; a lot on the north side of Port Street, between Vancouver and Quadra Streets, for $2,000 on terms; a lot at the northwest corner of Richardson and Lotbiniere for $1,000 terms; a lot running from Cecilia to George Road, for $1,100 terms, and several smaller deals in which former owners assume their properties for the amount of the total charges outstanding.

STREET SIGNS UP
Urged by the works committee to consider the taking of effective steps to see that overhanging signs in the city were safely hung and did not block the rights of others, the council agreed to devote time to the question at its next session, when it will sit as a committee of the whole.

The works committee suggested a special by-law to meet changing conditions, approving of the principle of illuminated signs, but disapproving of haphazard supports for any and all signs that loom over the heads of pedestrians on the streets of the city. City officials will be asked to report further on the issue.

ADVANCED ESTIMATES
Alderman William Marchant revived the proposal that the estimates for the succeeding year be considered by the retiring council, and secured support to the extent that the city comptroller will be asked to bring in a trial budget for 1929, before this year expires.

The council agreed to apply the one-hour parking plan to that section of Douglas Street between Fort and Humboldt Streets, on the recommendation of the Police Board. A by-law amendment will be prepared to that effect. A police report showed a total of forty-five cars parked at the curb during daylight hours, ten of which remained there six hours, at least, and twenty-seven for periods of over two hours.

The council declined to declare arterial highway stops necessary on Blanshard at Port and Yates Streets, refusing to pass a recommendation to that effect by the Police Board. F. M. Preston reported work well under way towards the completion of the foundations of the cold storage plant at Ocean Point, and stated C. H. Toop was installed as inspector at the site.

The council approved a list of insurance firms which will participate this year in carrying the policies on the B. C. Worsteds Mills Limited. The firms were those who had lent material aid to the support of the project.

The city will ask the authority of the proper authorities for demolition of beachcombers' shacks along Dallas beaches east of Menzies Street.

CHANG HSEUH LIANG NOW ONE OF FIVE LEADERS

Son of Chang Tso Lin Member of Nationalist Government at Nanking

Chang Hseuh Liang, son of Chang Tso Lin and who succeeded his father as the war lord of Manchuria, is now one of the five outstanding leaders of the Nationalist Government at Nanking, according to Frederick A. Waters of the Standard Oil Company of New York, who reached here to-day from Shanghai aboard the liner President Jackson.

The appointment of Chang Hseuh Liang to a post at Nanking, which is tantamount to a cabinet post in that country, means united effort between the leaders of North and South China and will lead to more stable government in the strife-torn country, says Mr. Waters.

The Nationalists, he says, control the country approximately 1,000 miles up the Yang-Tze Valley, but there are large areas in China where the influence of the Nanking Government has yet to be felt. Law and order, however, is gradually being established and trading is being resumed in the interior districts. Mr. Waters, who is returning to New York on leave, is accompanied by his wife, their three sons, David, Frederick and Philip, and Mrs. Katherine Hummel, mother of Mrs. Waters.

The November meeting of the South Saanich Women's Institute took place in the rooms at the Temperance Hall, the president, Mrs. H. Lawrie, being in charge.

The Junior Institute reported plans for a bazaar, concert and dance in the Temperance Hall on Wednesday evening, December 5. Mrs. Mosher kindly invited the members to her home next Wednesday afternoon, November 21, when new tea cloths for the card tables will be made.

It was decided to send fruit to a member of the Hornby Island Institute who is at present a patient in the hospital at Victoria. The report of the year's work and the election of officers will take place at the December meeting. Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mesdames J. A. Paterson, Bate and S. Paterson.

The November meeting of the South Saanich Farmers' Institute was well attended by members and visitors on Thursday evening and proved very interesting. Mr. Lionel E. Taylor of Mount Newton was the speaker of the evening. The subject of the address, "Seeds and Bulbs," proved a popular one and the speaker fully outlined methods of growing, and named suitable varieties.

C. B. McCarthy, vice-president, conducted the business meeting. A standing vote of sympathy was expressed to the family of the late Thos. F. Gold, who had been a member of the Institute for a number of years.

The Institute will hold pruning classes for the members again next spring and another ploughing match is also being planned.

An invitation was received and accepted from the Farmers' Institute of Metochin to attend an entertainment in the Luxton Hall on Tuesday evening, November 20.

A committee from the Farmers' Institute will meet the ladies to make arrangements for the country store entertainment to be held in the Temperance Hall, Tuesday, December 18. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting by members of the Women's Institute.

Mr. Lawrence Hafer has returned to his home in Port Angeles after spending the week-end at the home of his mother on Central Saanich Road.

Miss Mabel Miller was hostess to the Junior Institute at her home at Saanichton, on Saturday afternoon when a sewing bee was held for the benefit of the club in the Temperance Hall on Wednesday evening, December 5.

Residents of the district are promised an evening of excellent entertainment on Wednesday, November 21, when the young people of the Sidney Baptist Church will present their play, "Go Slow, Mary," in the Temperance Hall, under the auspices of the local young people's club. This play was pronounced a masterpiece last when it was presented in the Sidney Auditorium before a crowded house and was accorded rounds of applause and merriest thrills.

The basketball games played in the Temperance Hall on Friday evening attracted a large crowd of fans, who were provided with three interesting games. Although the local teams played in league games in Victoria the night before, all were in splendid form and succeeded in retaining all the honors of the evening. The games were followed by refreshments and dancing.

The lineup was as follows: Nuggets, Hilda Scott, Dot Rende, Kay Hill, May Lewis, Iris Vickers, Norah Scott, 23 points.

Keating girls: Nellie Styan, Alice Styan, Gladys Hanson, Winnie Griffiths, Hattie Griffiths, 28 points.

Keating girls: Hilda Scott, 23 points; Longley, Love, Davis, 19 points.

Keating intermediates: G. Mitchell, R. Mitchell, S. Bate, N. Tanner, F. Sutton, L. Styan, 23 points.

Keating seniors: S. Bate, Cunningham, Atkinson, H. Mitchell, W. Bate, 55 points.

Mr. and Mrs. Home entertained with a jolly party at their home on East Saanich Road on Friday when the members of the young people's club of the South Saanich United Church were their guests for the evening. The evening was very enjoyably spent playing games and a picture guessing contest was won by Miss Violet McNally and Mr. Oakes. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostesses, assisted by Mrs. Oakes, and the evening was brought to a close by singing "For They are Jolly old Fellows." Those present were: Misses Alice Heyr, Ida Heyr, Bertha Snyder, Jessie Rhode, Lillian Dearing, Gertrude Dearing, Violet McNally, Sadie Patterson, Margaret McPherson, Mrs. Bate, M. A. Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. Oakes, Rev. Mr. Lewis, Messrs. W. McLure, Albert Hafer, Edward Oakes.

GIRL ALONE

By ANNE AUSTIN

Copyright 1928 by NEA Service Author of "Saint and Sinner"

"Oh, you did, did you?" Pearl demanded sharply. "Well, let me tell you, young lady, you let David Nash alone. He's mine—see? He's not just an ordinary hired hand. He's working his way through State A. & M. He's a star on the football team and everything. But don't you go trying any funny business on David, or I'll make you wish you hadn't!"

"I—I didn't even speak to him," Sally hastened to reassure the farmer's daughter, then hastened herself for her humbleness.

"Here's your room. It's small, and it gets pretty hot in here in the summer, but I guess it's better'n you're used to at that," Pearl Carson, a little mollified, swung open a flimsy pine door.

Sally looked about her timidly, her eyes taking in the low, sagging cot bed, the upturned pine box that served as a washstand, the broken rocking chair, the rusty nails intended to take the place of a clothes closet; the faded, dirty rag rug on the warped boards of the floor; the tiny window, whose single sash swung inward and was fastened by a hook on the wall.

"I'll bring you some of my old dresses," Pearl told her. "But you'd better hurry and change into your orphanage dress, so you can help Mama with the supper. She's been putting up raspberries all day and she's dead tired. I guess Papa told you you'd have to hustle this summer. This ain't a summer vacation—for you. It is for me. I go to school in the city in the winter. I'm second year high and I'm only sixteen," she added proudly. "What are you?"

Sally, who had been nervously untying her brown paper parcel, bent her head lower so that she should not see the flare of hate in those pale blue eyes which she knew would follow upon her own answer. "I'm—I'm third year high." She did not have the courage to explain that she had just finished her third year, that she would graduate from the orphanage's high school next year.

"Third year?" Pearl was incredulous. "Oh, of course, the orphanage school! My school is at least two years higher than yours. We prepare for college."

Sally nodded; what use to say that the orphanage school was a regular public school, too, that it also prepared for college? And that Sally herself had dreamed of working her way through college, even as David Nash was doing?

Eight o'clock was the supper hour

on the farm in the summertime, when every hour of daylight had to be spent in the orchards and fields. When the long dining table, covered with red-and-brown-checked oilcloth, was finally set down to the last iron-handled knife, Sally was faint with hunger, for supper was at six at the orphanage. Sally had peeled a huge fishpan of potatoes, had shredded a giant head of pale green cabbage for cole slaw, had watched the pots of cooking string beans, turnips and carrots, had rolled in flour and then fried great slabs of round steak—all under the critical eye of Mrs. Carson, who had found herself free to pick over the day's harvest of blackberries for canning.

"I suppose we'll have to let Sally eat at the table with us," Pearl grumbled to her mother, heedless of the fact that Sally overheard. "In the city a family wouldn't dream of sitting down to table with the servants. I'm sick of living on a farm and treating the hired help like members of the family."

"I thought you liked having David Nash sit at table with us," Mrs. Carson reminded her.

"Well, David's different. He's a university student and a football hero," Pearl defended herself. "But the other hired men and the Orphans' Home girl—"

Clem Carson appeared in the kitchen doorway. "Supper ready?"

"Yes, Papa. Thanks for the candy, but I do wish you'd get it in a box, not in a paper sack," Pearl pouted. "I'll ring the bell. Hurry up and wash before the others come in."

While Clem Carson was pumping water into a tin wash basin, just inside the kitchen door, Pearl swung the big copper dinner bell, standing on the narrow back porch, her lavender silk skirt fluttering about her thick legs.

Sally fled to the dining room then, ashamed to have David Nash see her in the betraying uniform of the orphanage.

She had obediently set nine places at the long table, not knowing who all of those nine would be, but she found out before many minutes passed. Clem Carson sat at one end of the table, Mrs. Carson at the other. And before David and the other hired men appeared, a tiny, bent little old lady, with kind, vague brown eyes and trembling hands, came shuffling in from somewhere to seat herself at her former son's right hand. Sally learned later that everyone called her Grandma, and that she was Clem Carson's widowed mother. Immediately behind the little old lady came a big, hulking, loose-jointed man of middle age, with a black, grinning mouth, a stable of gray beard on his receding chin, a vacant, idiotic smile in his pale eyes.

At sight of Sally, shrinking timidly against the chair, which was to be his seat, the man's eyes turned to her like a playful, overgrown puppy. One of his clammy hands, pale because they could not be trusted with farm work, reached out and patted her cheek.

"Pur-ty girl, pur-ty as-ter," he articulated slowly, a light of pleasure gleaming in the pale vacancy of his eyes.

"Now, now, Benny, be good, or Ma'll send you to bed without your supper," the little old lady spoke as if he were a naughty child of three. "You mustn't mind him, Sally. He won't hurt you. I hope you'll like it here on the farm. It's real pretty in the summertime."

The two nondescript hired men had taken their places, slipping into their chairs silently and apologetically. David Nash had changed his blue work shirt and "jeans" for trousers for a white shirt, dark blue polka-dotted tie, and a well-fitting but inexpensive suit of brown homespun. Sally, squeezed between the vague little old grandmother and the vacant-eyed half-wit, beyond whom the two hired men sat, found herself directly across from David Nash, beside whom Pearl Carson sat, her chair drawn more closely than necessary.

"My, you look grand, David!" Pearl cooed in a low, artificially sweet voice. "My color's lots better. Papa'll let us drive into the city to the movies if you ask him real nice."

It was then that Sally Ford, who had experienced so many new emotions that day, felt a pang that made every other heartache seem mild by comparison. And two girls, one a girl alone in the world, the other pampered and adored by her family, held their breath as they awaited David Nash's reply.

CHAPTER VI

"Sorry, but I can't to-night," David Nash answered Pearl Carson's invitation courteously but firmly. "It would be 'way after nine when we got to town, and we wouldn't get back until nearly midnight—no hours for a farm hand to be keeping. Besides, I've got to study, long as I can keep awake."

"You're always studying when I want you to take the somethings," Pearl pouted. "I don't see why you can't forget college during your summer vacation. Get some more hot biscuits, Sally," she added sharply.

Except for Pearl's chatter and David's brief, courteous replies, the meal was eaten in silence, the hungry farmer and his hired men hunching over their plates, the quantities of fried steak, vegetables, hot biscuits, home-made pickles, preserves, pie and coffee that Sally was kept running between kitchen and dining room to replenish bowls and plates from the food kept warming on the stove. In spite of her own hunger she ate, little, restrained by timidity, but after her twelve years of orphanage life, the meal seemed like a banquet to her.

No one spoke to her, except Mrs. Carson and Pearl, to send her on trips to the kitchen, but it did not occur to her to feel slighted. It was less embarrassing to be ignored than to be plied with questions. Sometimes she raised her fluttering eyelids to steal a quick glance at David Nash, and every glance opened her joy that he was there, that he sat at the same table with her, ate the same food, some of which she had cooked. His superiority to the others at that table was as strikingly evident, that he seemed god-like to her. His pride, his poise, his golden, masculine beauty, his strength, his evident breeding, his ambition, formed a sharp contrast to the qualities of the orphaned boy who had known that it did not occur to her to hope that he would notice her. But once when her blue eyes stole a fleeting glimpse of his face she was startled to see that his eyes were regarding her soberly, sympathetically.

He smiled—a brief flash of light in his eyes, an upward curl of his well-cut lips. She was so covered with a happy confusion that she did not hear Mrs. Carson's harsh, nasal voice commanding her to bring more butter from the cellar until the farmer's wife uttered her order a second time.

In spite of the prodigious amount of food eaten, the meal was quickly over. It was not half-past eight when Clem Carson scraped back his chair, wiping his mouth on his shirt sleeve.

THE TINYMITES

STORY BY HAL COCHRAN PICTURES BY KNOX

READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE

The Tinymites were a happy crowd. Their little boat was on a cloud, and they were floating through the air as nice as nice could be. Wee Clown's face began to beam, and he exclaimed, "It's like a dream. We do not have to row at all, and that appeals to me." The small balloon was still above. Soon Scouty said, "Say, I would love to meet the little man who's giving us this dandy ride. Perhaps he'll come down pretty soon, 'cause he is still in that balloon, so see him every now and then. I guess he's trying to hide."

They floated on an hour or so, first moving fast, then moving slow. Some other clouds came near, but bothered no one very much. The Tinymites began to joke. Said Coppy, "Every cloud's like a joke. They look so soft and fluffy that they should be real nice to touch."

Uncle Wiggily's Lunch Basket

Copyright, 1928, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.

(By HOWARD R. GARIS)

Of all the animals living in Woodland, near where Uncle Wiggily had built his hollow stump bungalow, none was more sly or cunning than the Weasel. Though he was not as large as Uncle Wiggily, the Weasel was so fierce and strong, so quick and tricky, and with such sharp teeth, that Uncle Wiggily feared the Weasel even more than he did the Fox, Wolf or Bob Cat.

"For the Fox, Wolf and Bob Cat are large, and when I look across the fields, I even amid the trees of the woods, I can easily see those Bad Chaps coming," said the bunnny uncle.

"But, the Weasel! Dear me! When he starts after me he sinks along, hiding under bushes and rocks and behind trees. I can't see him until he's right on my back, and then he's on my back, and I can hardly see him before he is ready to

"Oh, don't do that," another cried. "If foolish things like that are tried, you might fall from the rowboat. Think how sorry you would be, if you should fall and give the rest of us a scare. I'm sure you wouldn't like it if you fell into the sea."

Just then their rowboat seemed to stop. The balloon above began to drop. Then Coppy cried, "It's coming down, and heading over this way. The small balloon man soon will be so close enough for us to see." This pleased the crew of Tinymites, and they all yelled, "Hurrah!"

The little balloon soon ceased to float. It stopped behind the Tinymites' boat. Out hopped the funny little man. He loudly cried, "Hello!" And then he blinked his little eyes and said, "I'm master of the skies. I'm going to take you all some place where you will like to go."

"True enough, he will never know!" chuckled Mrs. Weasel. "Ha! Ha! Ha!" So the Weasel slunk along to Uncle Wiggily's bungalow. And, surely enough, a little later Mr. Longears came out carrying on his paw a large basket of lunch. Just as the Weasel had found out, the bunnny uncle, of late, had been taking his lunch with him.

"You see," said Uncle Wiggily to his wife, "the winter days are so short now that if I come home to lunch at noon I lose time and can't find any adventures. So I'll take my lunch with me." And he did.

Along over the fields and through the woods hopped Uncle Wiggily with his lunch basket. But he had not long to rest, placing the basket behind him.

"If it were not so near where the Police Dog comes along, I would pop out and grab Uncle Wiggily now," whispered the Weasel to himself, for he had followed the rabbit from his bungalow. "But as it is, I'll show out the lunch hide myself in the basket and wait until this rabbit has carried me deep and far into the woods. Then I'll pop out and get him where no Police Dog can arrest me."

Uncle Wiggily took a little nap as he sat down on the log resting, and while he slept the Weasel slyly opened the basket, threw out the rice lunch Mrs. Weasel had put up, carrot sandwiches, cabbage, cake and everything and inside the basket the Weasel hid himself. Pretty soon the bunnny awakened, picked up his basket and traveled off, taking the Weasel with him, though not knowing it. But don't worry. The Weasel isn't going to catch Mr. Longears. How he was saved I'll tell you soon. If the bread knife will tickle the leg of the kitchen table and make it dance the next story will be Uncle Wiggily and hungry Jack.

Jump on me. Oh, no, I don't like Mr. Weasel!"

Now the Weasel was always trying to catch Uncle Wiggily, but so far, the Sly Chap had not done so. Uncle Wiggily had good luck and always managed to get away in time, though more than once the rabbit was nearly caught.

It was one time after the Weasel had tried to catch the bunnny, but had not done so, that the Sly Chap said to his wife:

"I know how I can get that bunnny." "How?" asked Mrs. Weasel. "I hope you get him soon, for we have very little to eat in the burrow."

"I'll go out right now and get him!" started the Weasel. "I have a new trick I am going to play."

"What kind of a trick?" asked his wife.

"I am going to hide in his lunch basket," snarled the Weasel, not because he was impolite to his wife, but because that was his way of speaking. "You mean hide yourself in Uncle Wiggily's lunch basket?" asked Mrs. Weasel.

"Yes," answered her husband. "Uncle Wiggily, of late, has been going out to look for adventures and taking with him a big basket of lunch. It is quite large enough for me to fit myself into. And once I am inside the basket, I'll struggle down until the Weasel, who will have carried me with him into the far woods. Then, when he opens his basket to eat his lunch, out I'll pop and I'll catch him. Then I'll eat my lunch. 'Ha! Ha! Ha!'"

"Ha! Ha! Ha!" laughed Mrs. Weasel. "Save some lunch for me!"

"I shall," the Weasel promised her husband. "And now I must go hide outside Uncle

It looks almost like magic—the way a wealth of health floods the body under the healing influence of "Fruit-a-tives." Indigestion, Gas and Pain after Eating, Headaches and Constipation simply disappear. As Mrs. E. I now eat anything and feel like a new person."

On the other hand, Coach Smith still firmly believes in his method of tough drill training and points out that with his custard-pie formation, working in plum pudding order, there is practically no chance of his lighter and faster team getting mixed up over which goal line they are attempting to cross.

Capt. Milt Smith of Pennsylvania State said: "We have this year given up the humble attempt of signal calling and will go into camp. We will take those sauerkraut or hot-doggers in the first inning, but there's always the possibility of a contest of this kind going as many as nine rounds."

To-morrow's Horoscope

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 21, 1928

Good luck appears to be indicated for most persons to-day, according to astrology. Benefic aspects strongly rule. Under this planetary government, women should benefit greatly in unusual ways. Honors will come to a few who will render high government service. The future promises that the transition period in which women are learning how to conduct public affairs is drawing to a close, although varying is given that feminine minds still have much to master in the way of impersonal outlook. This is held to be a fairly lucky wedding day, making for long domestic partnership and steady advancement toward wealth. The future seems to be subject to a sign in which they took unusual attention and cause extraordinary discussion. The voice of the ruse play is passing. It is foretold, and real drama of fine quality is to be presented. All the seers agree that after so much material, a dramatic United States is to reach supreme artistic heights within a very short time. Astrologers foretell in their prophecies, concerning government that the President's cabinet will include, in addition to a secretary of education, a secretary of the arts. The evening of this day is a propitious time to entertain celebrities and is favorable for star parties.

This month's total eclipse of the moon is interpreted as menacing, since it brings darkness in its position and presages bloodshed in foreign lands. France is under a sinister sway and there may be much illness during a gloomy winter. Persons whose birthdate it is have the anxiety of a happy, prosperous year in which they are able to realize their ambitions. Domestic environment should be especially fortunate. Children born on this day probably will have the rare talent of making the most of their possibilities. They are likely to be attractive in appearance, tactful and charming. These subjects of Scorpio are on the cusp and may partake of Sagittarius qualities. (Copyright, 1928)
